

Blanche E. Goldade

1-21-87

Groton

Funeral services for Blanche E. Goldade, 90 of 701 S. 14th St., Aberdeen were held Tues., Jan. 6 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Aberdeen with Rev. Steve Barnett officiating. Burial was in Groton Union Cemetery.

Blanche E. Riley was born on August 23, 1896 at Mansfield, to George and Addla Moore Riley. This is the area where she grew up and attended school. She was married to John L. Kurtz on January 25, 1917 at Groton. They made their home in Groton until 1930 when they moved to the James area of South Dakota where her husband farmed. In 1942 they moved into Aberdeen and she did housekeeping for various people. Mr. Kurtz died on November 26, 1954 in Aberdeen and she continued to reside there. On June 2, 1965 she was married to Anton J. Goldade at Aberdeen and they made Aberdeen their home.

Goldade was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Women of the Moose and Royal Neighbors, all of Aberdeen.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Alfred (Deloris) Wilson, Aberdeen; Mrs. John (Verna) Herzog, Yakima, Wash.; Mrs. Glen (Lavonne) Ham, Cambridge, Minn.; two brothers, Wesley Riley, Sioux Falls and Ervie Riley, Missoula, Mont.; seven stepsons, Steve Goldade, Sun Prairie, Wis., Eugene Goldade, Cottage Grove, Wis., Donald Goldade, McFaland, Wis., Robert Goldade, Stoughton, Wis., Anthony Goldade, James Goldade, both of Madison, Wis., Brother Sebastain Goldade, Blue Cloud Abbey, Marvin; five step daughters, Helen Miller, Aberdeen, Florence Krause, Sun Prairie, Wis., Bernice Lindgren, Sun Prairie, Wis., Eleanor Markovetz, Rapid City and Mary Ann Rogers, Sun Prairie, Wis.; 25 grandchildren and several great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

Goldade was preceded in death by her parents, first and second husbands, two sons, one daughter, four sisters and two brothers.